The Nelson Mandela Scottish Memorial Foundation

Incorporated in December 2016 and officially launched in October 2017, the NMSMF's early objective is to erect a statue of Mandela in Nelson Mandela Place, Glasgow.

Side-by-side with this, we aim to increase the understanding of Mandela's role in the successful anti-apartheid struggle in South Africa and its lessons for human rights, equality and racial harmony.

2018 is the centenary of Mandela's birth and the 25th anniversary of his visit in 1993 to Glasgow to receive the Freedoms of 9 UK cities, districts and boroughs.
